

Special Olympics New York, a 501 (c) (3) nonprofit charitable organization, is pleased to share with donors the financial statement of revenue and expenses for 2014 and 2015. We have invested the resources that you have shared with us in the best way possible - in our athletes.

We never charge athletes or their families to train or compete.

Special Olympics New York is governed by a volunteer Board of Directors, which oversees the organizational structure and ensures all eligible children and adults with intellectual disabilities, are given the opportunity to realize their full potential through sports training and competition.
